Role Overview:

We at AmeriLiquid are looking for driven and articulate individuals to join our team as Business Development Representatives (BDRs), especially within the dynamic real estate investment and financial services domain.

In this role, you will be the first point of contact for potential clients, supporting business outreach, asset evaluation coordination, and financial data collection initiatives. This opportunity is ideal for candidates who are passionate about client communication and eager to grow in areas such as real estate underwriting, loan and lien analysis, debt structuring, and marketplace coordination.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct outbound outreach through high-volume calls using CRM and dial systems
- Support marketplace coordination and data gathering efforts related to real estate assets
- Assist in identifying and classifying opportunities related to property underwriting, lien positions, and loan valuation
- Initiate meaningful conversations with potential clients to introduce our services
- Assess and qualify prospects based on defined criteria, logging all interactions with precision
- Coordinate and schedule follow-ups or meetings with acquisitions division
- Consistently meet daily and monthly outreach and conversion targets.

Requirements:

- Strong command of English (spoken and written)
- Familiarity with real estate or financial concepts such as underwriting, deal evaluation, CRM tracking, loan/lien documentation, or investment sales is highly desirable
- Personal laptop/desktop with a reliable high-speed internet connection
- Professional-grade noise-cancelling headset/microphone
- A designated, quiet workspace at your remote location that supports uninterrupted communication during working hours
- Previous experience in business development, cold calling, customer engagement, or virtual assistance is a plus
- Highly self-motivated with strong attention to detail and time management skills.

Required Skills:

- Fluent English communication (verbal and written) with a persuasive and professional tone
- Ability to handle objections and navigate high-pressure sales conversations
- CRM proficiency, data entry accuracy, and call tracking discipline
- Basic understanding of real estate financials, loan documents, liens, and asset classes
- Lead qualification, appointment setting, and funnel progression strategies
- Strong organizational habits and ability to manage follow-up pipelines
- Self-discipline to operate independently from a home-based setup in fixed hours
- Market research, outreach personalization, and rapid adaptability to new verticals

Perks:

- Comprehensive training and onboarding to set you up for success
- Collaborate with a global team and gain exposure to international real estate and capital markets
- Attractive, performance-based incentives beyond base compensation.

Growth Opportunities:

- High-performing individuals will have the opportunity to fast-track into advanced positions such as BDR Manager or Acquisition Specialist, with additional responsibilities in client strategy, underwriting collaboration, and cross-border asset coordination.

MODE OF INTERNSHIP: Initially Remote
