

MERAKII

About the Company:

Merakii, is a budding firm that offers distinct solutions pertaining to marketing, branding and organic lead generation for businesses. We solve a core business problem: brands struggling with low visibility, weak positioning, and inconsistent customer acquisition in the digital space. Company is also helping businesses create a long-term inbound pipeline through LinkedIn and AI so instead of relying only on paid ads or referrals, brands can attract qualified leads consistently and build trust at scale.

We strive to give an organized and structured promotion plan that helps you promote to the right audience.

Our firm hosts an array of services to take care of your needs. Our services include Organic Lead Generation, Graphic Designing, Web Development, SEO, Content Writing, Social Media Management, Video Editing and Package Designing.

As you will be representing Merakii Brandpro, you are expected to maintain the integrity of the organization.
