4. Marketing Intern (Strategy and Content):

Role Overview:

We are looking for a sharp, articulate, and research-oriented Marketing Intern to join our in-house team. This role is perfect for someone who enjoys the "thinking" side of marketing translating complex business ideas into compelling narratives. You will work across a diverse portfolio, ranging from premium real estate to innovative digital products, helping us build trust and authority in the market.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Omni-channel Content Creation: Help draft, edit, and repurpose high-level content across LinkedIn, Instagram, and blogs to ensure a consistent and professional brand voice.
- Newsletter Development: Contribute to the end-to-end process of building a community newsletter. You will learn to curate industry trends, draft engaging copy, and master the technical side of email marketing.
- Market & Project Intelligence: Conduct deep-dive research into industry competitors, localized market trends, and project USPs to help inform our overall marketing strategy.
- Executive Branding: Assist the leadership team in managing professional profiles and engaging with key industry stakeholders to build online authority.

Requirements:

- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills in English.
- A keen interest in business strategy, investment logic, and professional storytelling.
- Ability to take complex information and simplify it for a target audience.
- Strong organizational skills and an eye for detail.

Perks:

- Direct Mentorship: Work closely with a lean marketing team and learn how brands are built from the ground up.
- Diverse Portfolio: Gain experience in high-ticket real estate and lifestyle branding simultaneously.
- Strategic Growth: Move beyond "execution" and learn the why behind successful marketing campaigns.
- Modern Workflow: Hands-on experience with AI-driven content tools and professional marketing stacks.

5. Marketing Intern (Creative and Engagement):

Role Overview:

Are you obsessed with trends, short-form video, and community building? We are looking for a high-energy Marketing Intern to lead the creative spark for our entertainment and experience brands. You will be responsible for driving engagement, working with creators, and bringing a "viral" mindset to everything we do—from physical theme parks to digital community products.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Multimedia Storytelling: Conceptualize and produce short-form video content (Reels/Shorts) using mobile editing tools, focusing on high-impact hooks and creative visuals.
- Campaign & Idea Generation: Participate in weekly brainstorming sessions to develop viral marketing concepts, new on-site activities, and creative brand activations.
- Influencer & Partner Relations: Assist in identifying and managing relationships with influencers and partners for barter collaborations, shoots, and event invites.
- Community Management: Actively monitor and engage with our online audience, helping to build a loyal community and managing the brand's digital reputation.

Requirements:

- A "digital native" who understands social media algorithms and current trends.
- Proficiency in mobile video editing apps (CapCut, InShot, etc.) and basic design.
- A creative mindset that isn't afraid to suggest "wild" ideas.
- Comfortable interacting with people, whether it's influencers on-site or followers online.

Perks:

- Creative Freedom: A platform to test your wildest content ideas and see them come to life in the real world.
- Networking: Build a network within the Delhi/NCR creator and influencer ecosystem.
- Skill Mastery: Perfect your short-form video production and community-building skills in a fast-paced environment.
- Startup Culture: Learn the agility of an experience-led brand where no two days are the same.

6. Marketing Intern (Market Intelligence and Research):

Role Overview:

Data is the lifeblood of premium real estate. We are looking for "Market Intelligence Officers" to map the Gurugram real estate landscape with surgical precision. Unlike a typical data entry role, you will be an investigator combining digital research, broker networking, and internal sales briefings to build a "Single Source of Truth" for our entire organization.

You will be assigned a specific geographic territory (e.g., Dwarka Expressway, Golf Course Ext, or SPR) and will be responsible for knowing every square inch of it.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- 360-Degree Project Audits: Build and maintain a comprehensive database of residential projects. You will go beyond the basics to map technical specs like FAR (Floor Area Ratio), Project Density, Core Efficiency (Apartments per floor), and Floor-to-Ceiling heights.
- Primary & Secondary Research: Synthesize data from official RERA filings, developer brochures, and 99Acres/MagicBricks to ensure our data is 100% accurate and legally grounded.
- Broker & Market Intelligence: Conduct regular "Mystery Shop" calls and meetings with local brokers to track real-world transacted prices, hidden inventory levels, and current market sentiment.
- Sales Nurturing: Attend internal Sales sessions to understand client "pain points" and translate your data into "Sales Hooks" (e.g., identifying projects with better appreciation potential or superior amenity-to-unit ratios).
- Comparative Analysis: Develop "Project vs. Project" sheets that help our Sales team handle technical objections and provide buyers with clear, data-backed investment logic.

Requirements:

- Analytical Mindset: You enjoy numbers and can spot a "good deal" or a "marketing gimmick" by looking at the specs.
- Persistence: You aren't afraid to pick up the phone, call 10 brokers a day, and extract the "ground truth" that isn't available online.
- Organization Skills: You can manage a massive Google Sheet without making it a mess—logical, clean, and standardized data entry is your superpower.
- Interest in Real Estate: A genuine curiosity about how cities grow, how luxury is defined, and how investments are structured.

Perks:

- Mastery of the Gurugram Market: You will end this internship knowing more about the NCR real estate market than most seasoned professionals.
- The "Owner's" Perspective: Learn the bridge between technical engineering specs (FAR/Density) and marketing value (Luxury/Privacy).
- Strategic Networking: Build a professional network within the Gurugram broker community and work directly with our high-performing sales and marketing teams.
- Career Foundation: This is an ideal launchpad for careers in Real Estate Private Equity, Strategic Marketing, or High-Ticket Sales.
